Week-Long Training Sessions for Church School Workers Sunday

Church school teachers from the South Bay area will gather at the parlor of the First Methodist church for a tea Sunday, which will be the first meeting of a training school.

Sponsored by the Board of Education of the Southern California-Arizona conference of the Methodist church, the school, from Aug. 7 to 12, is designed to train church school teachers and parents. Church leaders from the area will demonstrate their methods in working with children.

Rev. Roger Sawyer, of El Segundo, is director of the school. He will be assisted by Mrs. C. R. Hunt, of Hollywood, nurse; Mrs. Edna Trumbo, of Sherman Oaks, kindergarten; Mrs. Harold Gary, of Pasadena, primary; Mrs. Gordon Smith, of South San Gabriel, junior, and Richard Eager, of Los Angeles, intermediate.

Daily sessions from 9 to 3:15 will include orientation, work with children, evaluation, work sessions, and worship. Intermediate teachers will meet in the evening, from 6:15 to 8:30. The school is open to all interested persons, although Methodist materials will be used. Child care will be provided. Registration fees will cost $5.50.

Further information can be obtained at the Methodist church office, FA 8-3242.

Baptists Set Bible School August 15-26

Daily Vacation Bible School classes will be held from Aug. 15 to 26, at the Crenshaw Baptist Church, 18740 Crenshaw Blvd., the Rev. Harvey Hobbs announced this week.

Children from four through 16 years old will be accepted in the classes, which will be held from 9 to 12 noon, daily. Nursery care will be provided for younger children. The school will be directed by Mrs. Ruby Roberts and Mrs. Edward Seay.

Preparation day—with enrollment and discussion of school activities—will be held Aug. 12 at the church. It will be followed by a parade in the afternoon.

The school will close with a picnic on Aug. 26, the final day of instruction. Commencement services will be held the same evening.

Further information can be obtained from Rev. Hobbs at DA 6-0555.

Travel Not Necessary to Meet New People, Priest Discovers

(This is the first of a series of articles about pastors of local churches. The series is designed to acquaint citizens with information about the work of local congregations and give a picture of religious activities here.)

Travel is one of the main interests of Father Patrick J. McGuinness, pastor of Nativity Catholic Church, but since he came to Torrance 12 years ago, there has been little time, or, in fact, little need for him to go away.

"It's really a case of the mountain coming to Mohammed," he noted. "I love to go out and meet people, but Torrance is growing so fast that many new people are coming here to me."

Parish Increases

Torrance's mushrooming population has brought with it a corresponding increase in the number of members in the Nativity Parish. Today, the church embraces some 2000 families.

The work of the local parish increased also with the addition of St. Joseph's church, Pueblo, to Father McGuinness' jurisdiction two years ago. He is assisted by two assistant pastors. During Father McGuinness' pastorate here, a new Catholic school has been completed, a new wing added to the church building, and a new convent for the Sisters who teach at the school put in use.

Likes Travel

A native of Ireland, Father McGuinness has traveled far since he came to the United States in 1927. He has been in most western European countries and has made a visit to Rome, where he met the Pope. His travels also include Central America.

His boyhood dreams of becoming a priest were almost ended in 1927, when he developed a lung condition during his final year at Maynooth College in Ireland. He came to Southern California for his recovery and has stayed ever since—serving in Pomona, Los Angeles, and Riverside as assistant pastor and in Azusa and Lompoc as pastor, before coming to Torrance.

Boyhood Ambition

Being a priest was Father McGuinness' ambition from his boyhood, and in this he was encouraged by his mother, who was widowed when he was 10. He had nine brothers and sisters.

Nowadays, parish activities keep him busy and he has less time for golf, his favorite game. He had made a study of all ten laws in earlier years, but finds little time for that now.

He views the juvenile delinquency problems with concern, noting, "Parents should shoulder their responsibilities more seriously. Married couples should make greater sacrifices for one another for the good of religion and for the country. Too much is left for the churches and other organizations to do."

Play Starts Next Monday

The 25th anniversary production of the world-famous Pilgrimage Play will open at the Pilgrimage Theater, Hollywood, for four weeks, beginning next Monday evening at 8:30 p.m.

Except for the opening night, all performances will be given Tuesday through Sunday at 8:30. Reserved seats are now on sale at the box office, P. O. Box 1951, Hollywood, or at Mutual Ticket agencies.

New Lutheran Pastor Takes Over Duties

Pastor Walter Behrens, new assistant pastor, will preach his first sermon at the First Lutheran church this Sunday evening at 7 p.m. on the topic, "Jesus Saves Sinners."

He replaces Pastor U. Luther Siefkes, who will return for his final year at Wartburg Theological Seminary, Dubuque, Ia. Pastor Behrens has been a student at the same college and will be here for one year. A native of Minnesota, he will live with his wife at 2362 Maricopa Pl.

In morning services, Pastor Paul Inschwiler, of Christ Lutheran church in Compton will speak, giving the communion meditation and administering the Lord's Supper.

Cost of God Named Topic For Baptists

"The Cost of Living for God" will be the sermon topic of the Rev. George F. Cain, at the South Bay Baptist Church, 4565 Sharynne Lane, in 11 a.m. services Sunday.

At the end of the service, new members will be received and the Lord's Supper will be observed.

In evening services at 7:30, Rev. Cain will speak on "The Bible—a Supernatural Book." Crib nursery and toddler care is provided at all services. Sunday school starts at 9:45 a.m. each Sunday, while youth groups meet at 6:30 p.m.

The church will hold its monthly business meeting Wednesday, immediately following the prayer service at 7:30. A pot luck supper will be held at 6:30 the same day, in the Social Hall.

The Women's Missionary Fellowship will hold its White Cross work day on Thursday from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. in the Social Hall. Ladies are asked to bring a sack lunch.

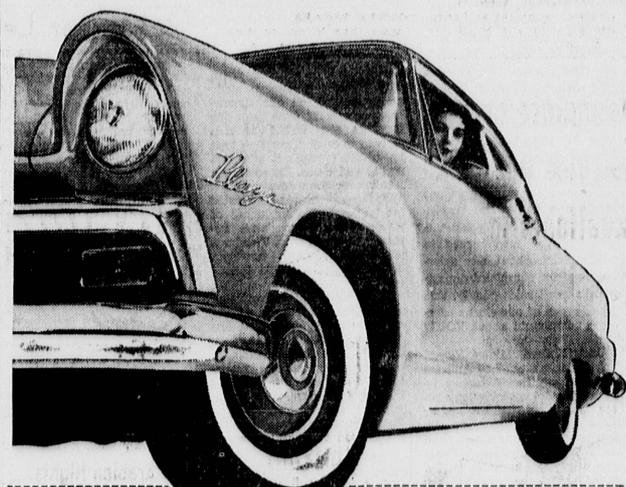

Work times on the new education unit will be Monday evenings and all day Saturday.

Evangelist's Talk Slated

Evangelist Boyd Field, of Juneau, Alaska, will begin a special series of gospel meetings at the Torrance Church of Christ, 1217 Cravens Ave., from Aug. 14 to 24.

With this in mind, Elmer Prout, local pastor, will speak in "Our Coming Meeting" at 10:45 service this Sunday morning.

Mr. Field will appear nightly at 7:30 during the period, speaking on such subjects as "The Word of God," "Saving Faith," and "What Are You Doing with Jesus?"
